

PERMISSIVE ACCESS

Footpath access is offered under Environmental Stewardship across these fields to join up with the Viking Way and to provide a pleasant route from which to enjoy the surrounding post industrial landscape. From the route you will see a now grazed landscape with clues as to its mining past in the tunnel entrances and ponds.

PLEASE RESPECT THIS SITE.

This access has been provided under the Department for Environment, Food & Rural Affairs' farm conservation schemes as managed by Natural England, which help farmers and land managers protect and improve the countryside, its wildlife and history. It is permissive access and no new rights of way are being created. Existing rights of way are not affected. Please follow the Countryside Code and observe any other requirements shown above. Do not disturb wildlife, livestock or other visitors and in particular keep dogs under control. This is working farmland so please take care; people using this site do so at their own risk. Access ends on 31st October 2017.
