

PERMISSIVE ACCESS

This short 'all user' path leads to an easy access hide overlooking several ponds. 100ha (250 acres) of former arable land has been reverted to wet grassland to encourage wintering and breeding waders such as lapwing and redshank. The grassland also provides protection to important historical remnants of a deserted mediaeval village which are mainly close to the road. However nothing is visible on the surface.

This access has been provided under the Department for Environment, Food & Rural Affairs' farm conservation schemes as managed by Natural England, which help farmers and land managers protect and improve the countryside, its wildlife and history. It is permissive access and no new rights of way are being created. Existing rights of way are not affected. Please follow the Countryside Code and observe any other requirements shown above. Do not disturb wildlife, livestock or other visitors and in particular keep dogs under control. This is working farmland so please take care; people using this site do so at their own risk. Access ends on 28th February 2019.

For access related queries please call the Access Management Unit on 01902 693218 (Office Hours).
